The reasons supporting such voting recommendations are set out in the proxy solicitation prospectus made available in accordance with the procedures referred to under the preceding item C), as from the date referred to under the preceding item D).

It is noted that the Promoter will exercise its voting rights only if the proxy is granted for the purpose of voting in favour of the resolution proposals formulated by KKCG Maritime and indicated above.

Lastly, it is specified that shareholders will be entitled to exercise their voting rights with respect to all items on the agenda, even if not subject to the solicitation, by executing the proxy form attached to the proxy solicitation prospectus.

F. FURTHER INFORMATION

For the purposes of the validity of the proxy, the relevant form, made available at the locations referred to under the preceding item C) as from the date referred to under the preceding item D), must be duly signed and dated by the person entitled to exercise the voting rights or, in the case of a legal entity, by the person vested with legal representation powers.

The proxy form attached to the proxy solicitation prospectus as Annex 1, which must be received by the Promoter, through Georgeson by 11:59 p.m. (Italian time) on 12 May 2026, by one of the following means (the "Proxy Deadline"):

- by email to the following address: sollecitazione-kkcg@georgeson.com;
- by registered mail, courier or hand delivery to the following address: Georgeson S.r.l., via Nizza, n. 128, 00187 – Rome, for the attention of Roberta Armentano

Where the proxy is sent by fax or email, without prejudice to the validity of the proxy so transmitted, it is recommended, for operational purposes, that the original be sent by post.

The following documents must be sent together with the proxy form: (i) in the case of natural persons, a photocopy of a valid identification document; and (ii) in the case of legal entities, a photocopy of the certificate issued by the Companies' Register or of a specific power of attorney, evidencing the representative powers of the person signing the proxy in the name and on behalf of the legal entity.

The Promoter shall not assume any responsibility in the event of failure to exercise voting rights in relation to proxies received after the Proxy Deadline and/or proxies which, even if received by such deadline, are not fully compliant with applicable law.

Pursuant to Article 137, paragraph 3, of the Issuers' Regulation, the Promoter, where expressly authorised by the person entitled to exercise voting rights, may, in the event that material circumstances arise which were unknown at the time the proxy was granted and which cannot be communicated to the delegating party, and which reasonably lead to believe that the delegating party would have given its approval had it been aware thereof, exercise voting rights in a manner different from that indicated.

The proxy may at any time be revoked by means of a written notice communicated to the Promoter and to the Delegate Entity by 13 May 2026.

It is hereby reminded that the persons entitled to exercise voting rights who grant the proxy must request their intermediary to communicate to the Issuer, within the time limits and in accordance with the procedures provided for by applicable law, their entitlement to attend the Shareholders' Meeting and to exercise voting rights.

With reference to attendance and voting, it should be noted that:

- a) pursuant to Article 83-sexies of the TUF, entitlement to attend the Shareholders' Meeting and to exercise voting rights is evidenced by a communication to the Issuer, made by the intermediary in favour of the person entitled to exercise voting rights, on the basis of the records as at the end of the accounting day of the seventh open-market day prior to the date set for the Shareholders' Meeting (i.e. 5 May 2026 – Record Date);

b) only those who are entitled to exercise voting rights as of such date (5 May 2026) will be entitled to attend and vote at the Shareholders' Meeting.
